

COVID-19 Business Resources

There are several resources being made available for businesses impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

Labor and Workforce Information

With the ever-evolving nature of this public health crisis, many employers are still determining the best path forward for their workforce as they put together guidelines for work or telework. To stay up-to-date on health considerations for your workforce, you can visit the following federal, state and local resources:

- <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-nCoV/index.html>
- <https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CID/DCDC/Pages/Immunization/ncov2019.aspx>
- <https://www.labor.ca.gov/coronavirus2019/>
- <http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/media/Coronavirus/>

Low-interest Loans

Businesses in California will be able to access low-interest loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). Small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives and nonprofit organizations may be eligible for a SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL). To apply for a disaster loan related to economic damage from the COVID-19 health crisis, listed below are Federal, State, and Local agency Internet links with detailed information.

- <https://www.sba.gov/disaster-assistance/>
- <https://americassbdc.org/>
- <https://laedc.org/coronavirus/>

Tax Relief

The Governor's office has announced that there will be tax relief for businesses in California impacted by COVID-19. This relief will include filing and payment extensions, and could include relief from interest and penalties. For more information, please visit the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development website: <https://business.ca.gov/coronavirus-2019/>.

City Resources

The City is closely monitoring the situation and providing updates on our website, social media and Channel 36 as they become available. While City Hall is closed to the public, please see below for helpful contacts for businesses:

- City Hall – (310) 605-5500
- Water Department – (310) 605-5524
- CareerLink – (310) 605-3050
- Building and Safety – (310) 605-5509
- Business Licenses – (310) 761-1444