

Official City Statement

“While we do not have all of the details regarding the charges brought against Councilman Galvan, the City takes any charges of elections fraud extremely seriously. Fair elections are the foundation of our democracy and must be protected and upheld as such. The City remains focused and resolute on implementing our City’s priorities in service to our residents during this most critical time.”

Mayor Emma Sharif, City of Compton