

Official City Statement

While we do not have all of the details regarding the allegations brought against Councilman Galvan, we remain focused and resolute on implementing our City's priorities in service to our residents during this most critical time.